IN THIS ISSUE

September 2026 was shaped by the SFC's push on investor identification and client data: two circulars set out the roadmap and consent requirements for the derivatives market regime (HKIDR-DM), scheduled for Q2 2028. Enforcement centred on AML/CFT and monitoring weaknesses, led by a HK$7 million fine on Zheng Da International, alongside a 42-month ban for unauthorised discretionary trading. The SFC also flagged private-market-asset funds for enhanced scrutiny, hosted its Brokers' Forum on scam prevention and cybersecurity, and unveiled a Strategic Action Plan. The HKMA issued a fresh scam alert on spoofed bank websites and published its half-yearly stability report.

HKIDR-DM Implementation Roadmap

The SFC set out the roadmap and main obligations for the Hong Kong Investor Identification Regime for exchange-traded derivatives. Licensed corporations must assign a Broker-to-Client Assigned Number (BCAN) to each relevant client, submit client identification data to HKEX, tag orders with the BCAN and apply robust data-protection controls.

Obtaining Client Consent under HKIDR-DM

Intermediaries must obtain express, explained and authenticated consent from individual clients before collecting and transferring their personal data to HKEX and the SFC. Without consent, firms may only accept orders that close existing positions. The regime is scheduled to launch in Q2 2028.

SFC-authorized Funds with Exposure to Private Market Assets

Management companies of authorised funds with direct or indirect exposure to private credit or private equity must meet enhanced disclosure requirements. Such funds may face enhanced scrutiny and be classified as complex products for distribution, which bears on suitability assessments.

ENFORCEMENT WATCH — SFC, SEPTEMBER 2026

We reviewed the SFC enforcement-news listing and searched for disciplinary sanctions, licence suspensions or revocations, disqualification orders, freezing orders and prosecutions for 1–30 September 2026. New actions are listed above: the Zheng Da fine and officer suspension (29 Sep), the Mok Cheuk Ling ban (11 Sep), the Silver Grant and Cloudbreak Pharma dealing suspensions (25 and 10 Sep) and the continued Lo Kai Bong freezing orders (18 Sep).

Criminal proceedings also moved forward: a pre-trial review is set for 12 November 2026 for Oliver Chow Pak Wah, who pleaded not guilty on 17 September to three charges of non-compliance with SFC investigation notices; and the District Court fixed trial from 23 August 2027 for two defendants charged with securities fraud involving illegal short selling (4 September). We did not find new licence revocations or disqualification orders in the period. Source pages: SFC e-Distribution refNo 26PR143 and 26PR134.
